An Important Change of Time on the Monon-Death of Mr. Burgess -Other Items.

Color el Emmett, District Passenger Agent of the Monon, will return from Kansas on Monday next.

W. W. Peabody, President and General Manager of the O. and M., has placed that read in splendid condition. Grand Chief Wheaten, of the Order of Railway Conductors, has called a union meeting of that organization to be held in this city Sunday, June 21. Delegates will be here from all parts of the country, and the meeting will transact considerable important business.

Allen 8. Burgess, Traveling Passenger Agent of the Union Pacific, with headquarters in this city, died at his residence on North Pennsylvania street yesterday. Mr. Burgess has been confined to his bed for about two months, being a sufferer from dropsey. The deceased was one of the best passenger men connected with the U. P., be ing on the alert for business all the time. wife and several children mourn his loss.

It was announced some time since that the tickets of the C., H. and D. at this point would be placed in the hands of District Passenger Agent Emmett, of the Monon route, and that he would act in that capacity for both lines. It is now said that the C., H. and D. people have changed their minds, and will not carry out this plan. At any rate, nothing will be done in the matter until after the annual meeting of the C., H. and D., which takes place on June 9; and, by the way, there is much speculation as to who will be the next President of this company.

General Passenger Agent W. S. Baldwin, of the Monon, announces that he has jus received a proof of the new time table which was arranged to go into effect to-morrow, but out on account of the radical changes it makes in train service will not go on until Sunday week. The time between Ohicago and Louisville has been shortened two hours, and the two trains to be run between these points will be made up of elegant coaches, fresh from the shops. Two very fine chair cars, recently turned out by the Philman Company, will be attached to these trains. Trains No. 5 and 6 will make close connection at Greencastle Junction with trains to and from Indianapolis and Terre Haute. The running time between Indianapolis and Chicego has been shortened one hour. The morning train will depart at 11:55 and arrive at 7 p. m. The night-train, leaving here at 11:25 p. m., will pull into Chicago at 7:15 a m. The afternoon train will arrive here at 3 o'clock instead of 3:15, while the morning train will reach here at 3:35 A train to sccommodate Iccal travel will leave Mitchell at 5:10 a. m., arriving at Lafayette at 11:20. The seturn train will leave Lafayette at 2:50 p. m. and arrive at Mitchell at 8:45 p. m.

HOLDING TWO OFFICES.

Opinion of the Attorney General Ragarding a Subject of Interest to Officeholders:

In response to questions submitted by Governor Gray, the Attorney General yesterday rendered the following opinion:

Hon, Isaac P. Gray, Governor of Indiana: Six-You submit to me the question, "Can the same person hold the office of Notary Public and Postmaster of the fourth class in this State, to which office a salary is attached exceeding $90 per

1. When the statute and Constitution are silent upon the subject of one person holding two offices, the question, whether the two offices can be so held, depends upon their compatibility, and the appointment of a person to a second office under the same authority, or under authorities of which one is in strict subordination to the other, incompatible with the first, is not absolutely void, but on his subsequent acceptance of the appoint. incompatible with the first, is not absolutely void, but on his subsequent acceptance of the appointment and qualifying, the first office is ipso facto vacated. 2. Can the two offices be held under the Constitution of the State of Indiana?

tution of the State of Indiana? The Constitution provides, "No person holding a lucrative office or appointment under the United States, or under this State, shall be eligible to a seat in the General Assembly, nor shall any person hold more than one lucrative office at the same time, except by this Constitution expressly permitted. Provided that officers in the minitia to which there is attached no annual salary, and the office of Deputy Postmaster, where the compensa-tion does not exceed $90 per aunum, shall not be deemed lucrative, and provided also that counties containing less than 1.000 polls may confer the office of Clerk, Recorder and Aud-iter, or any two of said offices, upon the same per-son. [Art. 2, Sec. 9 of Const.; R. S. 1881, Sec. 90.] An office to which is affixed pay supposed to be an adequate compensation for the performance of duties is a lucrative office. duties is a lucrative office. The State vs. Kirk. 44 Ind., 401; Creighton vs. Piper, 14 Ind., 182 and 183; Daily vs. the State, 8 Blackf., 329. The lucrativeness of an office does not depend upon the amount of compensation affixed to it.

[Daily vs. the State, S Blackf., 329, 380.]
The statute prescribes fees for services rendered by a Notary Public [R./S. 1881, Sec. 5 969], and the office is lucrative within the meaning of the Constitution. The office of Postmaster is an office of trust and profit, and is lucrative. [McGregor vs. Beich, 39 Amer. Dec., 231; Rodman vs. Harcourt. 4 B. The acceptance of a lucrative office under the Federal Government operates as a relinquishment and resignation of an office held under the State. Pablic.

The right to hold and exercise the office of Postmaster does not depend upon the Constitution and laws of Indians, but upon the Constitution and laws of the United States. This State could not say in her Constitution that no person who accepts a commission as an officer under our laws and acts as such shall hold or exercise the office of Postmaster under the United States, because the State of Indiana has no right to say what shall be Postmester under the United States, because the State of Indiana has no right to say what shall be the qualifications for the latter office, or by whom, or on what terms it shall be held or exercised, but it can say that no person helding or exercising the office of Postmaster under the United States shall hold a lucrative office under the State, because it has a perfect right to determine the qualifications for the office, and the terms and conditions on which it shall be held terms and conditions on which it shall be held and exercised, and our Constitution is operative on the office over which the State has coutrol, and got on that over which it has no power.
The Constitution of Indiana has prescribed a disqualification for holding and exercising the offices created by our laws, and if a person holds the office of Postmaster he can not, during such time, lawfully qualify and hold a lucrative office under the State. [Rod-man vs. Harcourt, 4 B. Mon., 224; Rodman vs. Har-court, 4 B, Mon., 499; the State vs. Degress, 53 Tex., 367; Crawford vs. Dunbar, 52 Cal., 36; State vs. Nourse, 3 Nev., 566; Kerr vs. Jones. 19 Ind., 351;

A Deputy Postmaster, when the compensation does not exceed $90 per annum, may hold an office under the State. Respectfully,

A Long Range Weapon. Speaking of the arrest of Charles Butler, an alleged Indianapolitan, in that city, the Chicago News says: "Charles Butler came from Indianapolis. He brought with him a neat and improved slungshot which is of great benefit to the highway robber, as it does its work quickly, silently, and enables the operator to stand eight or ten feet from his victim. The contrivance is composed of a lump of lesd, to which is attached a coiled spring of medium weight. This spring, when straightened out, measures about eight feest in length. At the end of the string is a strong cord, which holds the slungshot to the wrist and enables the operator to draw it back to his hand. Butler was acting in a suspicious manner vesterday, and an officer took him in charge. He was fined $25 by Justice Kerston to day for vagrancy and carrying concealed weapons"

President Brown's Retirement. Superintendent Holcomb returned yesterday from Terre Haute, where he attended the meeting of the State Normal Trustees, at which time the resignation of President Gearge P. Brown was accepted. He regrets the resignation and says that it was handed in and accep ed because of differences as to the method of conducting the school. Prevident Brown's resignation takes effect the 1st of July, at which time the Vice President, W. W. Parsons, will be placed in charge. It is thought that Mr. Parsons may be con tinged in that capacity for a year as there is no disposition to hurry into the election of a new President.

FASHIONABLE POISONING.

Morphine and Ether in the Paristan Club Room and Opera Box.

|Progres Medical.| Would you believe that some persons take pleasure in poisoning themselves simply because their neighbors do it? This is, however. a fact recently affirmed and proved by Dr Regnard at the Sorbonne. The largest au seemed to be completely dismayed at big revelations. Upon a large table in the amphitheater were disposed a series of the most brilliant-looking caskets. plated with gold and silver, or perhaps of bronze, or iniaid with pearl. You would think, to see them, that you had a grand display of jewelry laid out before you. Such is not, however, the case. What you see is only an admirable collection of syringes. Some of them are enclosed in elegant cigarette cases, others are contained in charming little reticules, or in smelling-salts flasks. The cases serve to mask the instrument and the little vial which goes with it. And wherefore these instruments? M. Reguard tells us that these luxurious implements are designed for the pleasure loving people of Paris, who can no longer find in the theater, or in gambling, horse racing, and their dissipations, the emotional excitement which they seek for so eagerly. These are the persons who purchase these marvelous caskets, which will at least lend them a temporary elasticity, although they can hardly rejuvenate the used up brain. The vials contain a solution of morphine, and the syringes are used to inject it beneath the skin. Do you wish to know how a person becomes a morphismaniae in the world of fashion? He tells his triend that he has tired of his habitual pleasures; that the greatest of them have lost their power to please. The friend replies that he had been in a similar condition. He had found consolation, however, in morphine; the drug had restored his tone and brilliancy. No more than this is necessary to make a morphiomaniac of a blase man or a nervous woman. But as it is necessary to dissimulate and preserve a sentiment of careless ease in the pursnance of the dread habit, one of the luxurious caskets with its golden syringe is purchased. While, therefore, the ordinary syringe used for the purpose may be had for dollar and a quarter, the fashionable syringes will sometimes fetch as high as $70 They are often given as New Year's presents. It is with these instruments, which they always carry with them, that gentlemen at their club or ladies in their opera boxes revive the almost extinguished sensations and sentiments of the past.

Instead of morphine injections some persons inhaie ether. People become etheromaniacs for the same reasons that they become morphiomaniscs. It is a vogue, a fantasy, which provokes these abominable intoxications. There are also morphiomaniacs who habituate themselves by dogrees to the poison to diminish the violent pains of gastralgia, or facial neuralgia; and we have a whole category of persons who poison themselves simply as a matter of caprice. Dr. Regnard divides morphiomaniacs into two groups—those who poison themselves honestly and those who do so because it is the fashion. The deplorable facility with which it is possible to procure solutions of morphine favors the development of this new malady among the idle and degenerated beings of high society. Dr. Regnard abused these neuropathic persons in the wittiest way. Nevertheless, I recognized several morphiomaniacs in the audi- Every Drop is Worth Its Weight in Gold ence who applauded the lecturer in the 225 00 heartiest manner.

The Duty of State Legislatures.

Legislation in every State should regulate the sale and use of the many poisons resorted to by women in their desperation to obtain a beautiful complexion. There exists in Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic every requisite to accomplish the object without injuring health or endangering life.

Vitality of Great Men Is not always innate or born with them, but many instances are known where it has been acquired by the persistent and judicious use of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic.

Wants the Facts Known. Mr. Editor-I and my neighbors have been led so many times into buying different things for the liver, kidneys and blood that have done us more harm than good, I feel it due your readers to advise them, when an honest and good medicine like Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic can be had. Very truly. AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Here is a fact for you to think over, viz.: Medical science proves that diseases, no matter how great a variety they seem to have, proceed from have absorbed a wonderful amount of metal comparatively few causes. It is for this reason poison. When a medical preparation acts at once upon the di-gestive and urinary organs, and also purifies the blood, the list of difficulties subject to its control is astonishing. But, while many things are said to possess this power, those which actually do exert it are very rare.

It is conceded that DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, of Rondout, N. Y., is the most effective preparation now in use for all diseases arising from a foul or impure state of the circulation. Hence it is more than likely that if the writer of the following letter had habitually taken "FA-VORITE REMEDY" ten years ago, he would never have suffered from Cancer.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., March 22, 1884.

Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.: DEAR SIR-About six years ago I was obliged to resort to external treatment for the removal of a cancerous growth on my lip. On my return home. I became sensible that my blood needed a thorough cleansing. My whole system, too, required toning up. While casting about for the best medicine to do this, your "FAVORITE REMEDY" was so highly commended in my hearing that I resolved to try it. I did so, and the remit surveyised me, it was effected so quickly and sult surprised me, it was effected so quickly and completely. I soon got over the depression produced by the operation, and since the "FAVOR ITE REMEDY," which I have continued to take in small doses, has kept me in such health and strength as I never had before, nor expected to have. It is the best blood purifier in the world. I am sure of that. Yours, etc.,

The drouth in Southwest Georgia last spring dried up the wells, and we were compelled to use water from the creek on the plantation. The result was that all were troubled with chills and fever.
